Module ID #	DATES/TIMES	WORKSHOP MODULE	DESCRIPTION	FEE
IC-7	May 13-14 8:40 am-12 noon	Narrative and Chronological Bible Teaching Mike Matthews	Communication is successful when the hearer understands what is being said. Approximately 70% of the world's population comprehends far better with a narrative style of communication. This workshop offers the participant the very tools needed for using the narrative (or expositional storytelling) approach to teaching God's Word.	$99.
IC-8	May 25-27 8:40 am-12 noon	Indigenous Church Principles Merle Nisly	No one intentionally carries the trappings of the "proper way to do" church when serving cross-culturally. This workshop takes an honest look at the bare bones of New Testament ekklesia and explores how these basics can be applied cross-culturally.	$149.
IC-9	May 28 8:40 am-12 noon, afternoon session	De-Institutionalizing Ministry Dan Woodard	How is it that evangelical ministry among First Nations peoples gets stereotyped as being like the residential schools? This workshop will discuss a range of solutions surrounding power and control as it relates to governance, leadership styles, boards, ministry health, communication and teaming skills, and managing transitions.	$99.
IC-10	May 31-June 1 8:40 am-12 noon	Youth Ministry Healing Hearts	With 50% of First Nations people under age 24, your ministry will likely involve Native youth. Why are youth suicide rates so high? What causes gangs? Are First Nations youth more ready for the gospel than we realize? These questions and more will be explored in these two days.	$99.
IC-11	June 9 8:40 am-12 noon	Fetal-Alcohol Spectrum Disorder Barb Nelson Cancelled	FASD is 100% preventable, 100% incurable, and will very likely affect your ministry. Participants in this workshop will learn how a FASD person feels and why they respond the way they do. Barb discusses the medical and social factors involved with FASD and practical strategies to communicate with FASD children/adults.	$49.
IC-12	June 2-3 8:40 am-12 noon	Abuse and Suicide Prevention Healing Hearts	The link between abuse and suicide is undeniable. Ministry with people in pain can involve both obstacles and opportunities. Selma guides the workshop participant in recognizing and facing the situation, symptoms, signs, support, and safety plan.	$99.

TEAM-BUILDING, LEADERSHIP, & INTERCULTURAL

TLI-1	May 3 8:40 am- 12 noon	Poverty Worldview Dan Woodard	Lack of money is only one small part of poverty. When we don't understand poverty, it's easy to fall victim to the unhealthy dependency syndrome. This workshop combines heavy-duty thinking with practical tools to help the participant serve in a way that alleviates poverty without hurting the poor – and yourself.	$49.
TLI-2	June 15-17 8:40 am- 12 noon, afternoon sessions	Church-Planting Strategy John Cosby	Being guided by the Holy Spirit and formulating ministry strategy go hand-in-hand. In this interactive workshop, John leads participants in designing a comprehensive strategy for initiating and developing local churches. Strategy can accommodate a variety of local church models, and this includes a responsible phase-out as part of the strategy. Participants will walk through a potential strategy for their own ministry.	$299.
