

The PATH scheduling has set aside special times each week for ladies to meet together and for men to meet with other men. This time is designed to provide a safe environment to discuss gender specific issues that relate to missionaries in cross-cultural ministries. It also provides a time of fellowship and interaction in a smaller group context. Schedules will be discussed at orientation.

Connections for Women

An informal time
to hang out together
with focused discussion on practical issues related to family and personal life
on the mission field.

Connections for Men